THE COVER: Happiness is . . . being a Theta . . . Better yet, happiness is being a Theta flying a Theta kite . . . But even better than that is being a Theta and flying a Theta kite with your fiancé. Debbie Plattner, Theta from the University of Arkansas, neatly combined all these facets of happiness one fine bright day, as shown in the picture, as she and John Roberts felt the joy in the tug of the kite string and the softness of the spring wind on their cheeks and dreamed dreams while watching the Theta kite soaring overhead.

YOUR EDITOR HAS A NOTION you will find this, our annual "mini-issue," is "maxi" in interest, particularly President Marty White's report on the State of Theta. People ask, "What's with fraternity today?" Marty tells you—in depth. . . . Hopefully the yellow paper used for the rush flyer this issue (changed by Grand Council directive from the green used for the flyer since its inception 12 years ago) will be easier on eyes and subtly motivating for rush.

State of the Fraternity

◆ So that members of Kappa Alpha Theta may be aware of the growth, accomplishments and direction of the fraternity, I submit this "state of the fraternity" report.

Panhellenic Trends

Ten year overall statistics (1961-71) show an increase of 480,842 members (48.5%) . . . net increase of 399 collegiate chapters (12.6%) . . . net increase of 838 alumnae chapters (17.9%) . . . more schools showing increase in women going through formal rush . . . increase in percentage pledged during formal rush . . . increase in number of women pledged in open rush . . . return to informal Panhellenic summer contacts.

General Trends

A tremendous strengthening of Theta collegiate-alumnae ties . . . alumnae chapters in non-college cities "adopting" college chapters and establishing scholarship and educational funds for their use . . . undergraduate members inviting local alumnae to informal get-togethers and alumnae members participating in Auntie Mame programs . . . more young alumnae serving as district officers and on Advisory and House Corporation Boards.

Campus activities taking a back seat to community involvement . . . some undergraduates serving on administrative committees and study groups . . . approximately 50% of our collegiates contributing to the cost of their education and fraternity membership, many holding jobs while attending school . . . number of financially delinquent members and total amounts owed decreasing . . . number of students transferring to other schools after two years having an adverse effect on chapter finances and operation . . . many colleges changing to a semester ending before Christmas . . . the lure of apartment living diminishing but remains the greatest threat to chapter financial stability and continuing Theta ownership of chapter houses.

A reviving interest in and appreciation of fraternity ritual . . . greater emphasis being placed on correct execution of ritual by college chapters.

Scholarship achievement increasingly difficult to define or evaluate as number of pass/fail and credit/no credit courses increase . . . recent surveys show that about two-thirds of the nation's colleges are using some form of pass/fail grading . . . 92% of the colleges using the system enter failures on a student's record, but only 43% include them in figuring grade-point averages.

Alumnae meetings which are best attended are those with purely fraternity programs encompassing Panhellenic information or just Theta news and those which are strictly social

Membership and Housing

Total Membership: 88,350 initiated members as of February 28, 1973.

College Membership: 95 college chapters; 1 new chapter; 1 dis-established chapter; 2,500 increase from the beginning of the 1971 school year until the end of 1972; 1,900 increase from the beginning of 1972 until February 28, 1973.

Our First Chapter in South Carolina, Delta Phi, installed in November 1972 at Clemson University, Clemson, SC.

Regretfully, Grand Council accepted the relinquishment of the charter of Delta Mu chapter at the University of Rhode Island in February.

The failure of the Board of Governors of the University to reinstate its original offer of land and loan guarantees for housing was a prime factor in this decision.

Alumnae Membership: 87 chapters; 219 clubs; 15,096 dues paying members in 1972, an increase of 430 over 1971.

Alumnae Contributions: $132,980 total given to philanthropies in 1972—$38,249 to Theta Foundation; $72,348 to local philanthropies; $22,383 to college chapters (scholarships and educational funds).

Housing: 65 college chapters in houses—58 owned by house corporations (4 on university land, 5 owned by university, 1 owned by an individual).

Ten chapters have lodges (9 owned by house corporations, 1 owned by an individual, 5 on university land).

Eighteen chapters with suites or rooms (16 owned by university, 2 privately owned).

Two chapters with no quarters.

... special interest groups within large chapters increasing in popularity, giving the individual member a better feeling of belonging ... increased involvement of alumnae in community volunteer work.

Publications

KAPPA ALPHA THETA MAGAZINE continues its excellent coverage of all phases of the fraternity ... Mary Margaret Kern Garrard, editor for 15 years, has resigned as of September of this year and Jane Rodgers Ratcliffe has been appointed as her successor ... the Constitution and Code of Regulations is being reprinted for distribution in the fall ... the Ritual Book, with minor revisions, will be printed for distribution in the fall ... two issues of the Kite Flyer, a new "inside Theta" publication, have been distributed to all chapters and clubs and fraternity officers ... the 1972 Grand Convention Proceedings have been printed and distributed to official delegates ... the College District President's Manual has been revised ... It Says Here, for college chapters, is being revised and updated for distribution in the fall ... the Overseas Kite Tale has been sent to approximately 550 Thetas living in foreign lands ... three issues of the Bulletin have gone to every chapter, club and fraternity officer.

Miscellaneous

A smaller Grand Council (by two) is operating efficiently with the assistance of special officers who were appointed ... three Traveling Secretaries and three resident Counselors have had a busy year working with college chapters ... there is an increased appreciation by college chapters of the Fraternity Trends program as an adjunct to fraternity understanding ... pledge education programs are being more carefully planned which is resulting in an easier assimilation into the chapter of new initiates ... under the supervision of our new Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Mike Nilson, Central Office is carrying on the day-to-day business functions of the fraternity with courteous efficiency.

Foundation

Goal of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation for 1976 is to acquire an annual income of $100,000 from gifts and earnings ... Dorothy Schulze Vaaler, former Executive Secretary-Treasurer, has been appointed to serve as Foundation Office Director with headquarters in Central Office ... the services of an investment counselor have been procured ... $30,000 has been budgeted for the Institute of Logopedics this year ... six $750 graduate scholarships will be awarded to Thetas attending graduate school during the 1973-74 academic year; more interest than ever before has been evinced in this program ... at least four $1,000 Founders Memorial Scholarships will be available each year for outstanding undergraduate Thetas ... two undergraduate scholarships, the Helen Amor Tyson Fund and the Lanning-Beta Eta Scholarship Fund, are being administered by the Foundation and one $400 scholarship will be awarded each year to a Theta who resides in Pennsylvania ... a $3,000 fellowship will be awarded to a woman who is a candidate for a Ph.D. degree at the 1974 Grand Convention ... other projects of the Foundation include the DePauw Memorial Library, the Founders' Memorial Garden, the Foster Parents' Plan and the Education Incentive program.

Needs

Need increasing for qualified housemothers; definite correlation between the short supply and the demise of the office of dean of women which formerly served as a clearing house for applicants and assumed responsibility for regional training schools for house directors ... Theta policy continues to emphasize the importance of a qualified housemother as a basic factor in a successful chapter ... women interested in this work may contact Mrs. Loran Hendrickson, 3210 Cherry, Park South, Grand Forks, N.D. 58201.

Need for a concerted effort on the part of collegiates and alumnae to explain the values and promote interest in fraternity membership to high school girls who could and should be potential rushees ... for Rush Recommendation Boards to send recommendations to college chapters well in advance of formal rush ... for undergraduate participation with Rush Recommendation Boards in their home communities during the summer.

Need for a better understanding of the workings of the fraternity ... for realization that the continued success of our college chapters depends upon the support offered by local alumnae ... for understanding that the strength of the fraternity is dependent upon the support of the entire membership in the areas of service and finances.

To end all this on a happy note: the interest and commitment to fraternity is on the upswing!—MARTHA S. WHITE, Grand President.

Good News

Given an assignment containing several subjects they might cover, collegiate editors found much that they considered good news about sorority and Theta which they report in the chapter letters which follow. Through the letters a reader can gain a good perspective of sorority on campus today. Early bird letters were from 1. Montana 2. Newcomb, Purdue 3. Florida, Idaho 4. Tennessee 5. Kansas.

Thetas Together

ALABAMA—New on Delta Omicron's calendar is our get-together each Wednesday after dinner. Monthly we have a songfest, tuning up old favorites and learning new tunes from our affiliates. Other programs include speakers on career planning, health and women, and innovations in academics. Then there are evenings when we have a fireside time for Theta suggestions and fun! Pledges enjoy sharing this special time with actives before chapter meeting. We have found that the programs enhance our relations with the university community and provide stimulating topics for discussion.—PHYLLIS HUTSON.

COLORADO STATE—During the past year we have been visiting Amy Jenckes Cook Gamwell, a Theta alumna who graduated from Brown University in 1902, and who is 92 and lives in a nursing home in Ft. Collins. Mrs. Gamwell is blind and her hearing is impaired, but despite these handicaps she continues to maintain a spirit of enthusiasm for Theta which has been an encouragement for our chapter. Every week different girls visit her, and for Christmas we recorded some of our favorite Theta songs and presented the tape to her. Through this activity we have been able to strengthen the friendship of a Theta who has so much to offer our chapter and Kappa Alpha Theta.—JANE BARTLETT.

FLORIDA STATE—Many years ago, a Theta pin was discovered in a pawn shop in New Orleans. Through the years, this pin has been passed down and has finally found a home and purpose in our chapter. In commemoration of Dr. Marion Black, who has loyally given her service as chairman of the Advisory Board, the pin will be given by the senior class each quarter to the outstanding junior in the form of the Marion Black Award.

This award is given in order to recognize a deserving sister for her leadership, scholarship, activities and contributions to the chapter as a whole.—MARY JO MEIER.

HANOVER—Hanover Thetas are one big happy family once more with the addition of 18 "Nu" pledges. The sophomore class welcomed the pledges with a gingerbread-cat party. Each girl decorated her own gingerbread figure. They were delicious and the pledges enjoyed the chance to do something with their new sisters.

The Mom-Daughter slumber party further bound the pledges within the chapter by giving them their own special family. Each family had unique pajamas and the pledges discovered the identity of their Theta Moms by matching pajamas with them. The result has been unity within the chapter and with the pledges.—LYNDA HOUSKEEPER.

IDAHO—Beta Theta chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta, was hostess to the District XV conference, held in the chapter house March 2-4, 1973. Our convention was organized by District President, Mrs. Ann Vallat Sparks, while Sue Hammer, senior, was the house chairman. Sue had everyone busy making door decorations and name tags for the convention.

We were certainly pleased with the opportunity to meet other girls in our district, to learn new songs and exchange some great new ideas for our rush program next fall.—KATIE JOHNSON.

INDIANA—Thetas surprised Mrs. Beulah Rodecker on March 24 with a buffet luncheon and reception honoring her retirement after 20 years as Beta chapter housemother.

Bloomington alumnae, house advisors and "Rodie's" 600 daughters were invited to the luncheon at the Tudor Room in the Indiana Memorial Union. Afterwards, friends and University faculty greeted Mrs. Rodecker at a reception held at the chapter house. Rodie's warm services to the Theta house as a friend and counselor enriched the past two decades of Beta chapter at Indiana University.—DEBRA CONNOLLY.

MONTANA STATE—Delta Tau at Montana State University has seen itself grow from a small colony to a chapter that has been active in all aspects of college. Becoming established and securing roots is no easy task, but good leadership and organization have made it possible. This year our original 10 charter members reach graduation.

Rush has brought Delta Tau many pledges, who recently had a decorating spree in our laundry room. Also, relationships with alumnae have been excellent. Our Bozeman alumnae have purchased cooking utensils to use with the stove they presented us at Christmas.

Alumnæ likewise baked dozens of cookies to accompany our delegates to district convention. Yum!—ALAS! AUTHOR UNKNOWN.

PITTSBURGH—Alpha Omega was recently honored with a fascinating visit from Sally Hampshire, Theta's traveling secretary. She helped us over some confusing organizational dilemmas with her diligence and cooperativeness. Thanks to Sally's wise advice, we have a strong, homogeneous group on the platform for officers next year who are willing and anxious to make next year one of Alpha Omega's best. Not only did this energetic whiz aid us with some fantastic insights for a more smooth-running unit next year, but also made us freshly realize the dormant but ever-present ideal in each of us—national sisterhood.—CYNTHIA L. BENNETT.

ROLLINS—Twenty-six of our actives met in Freeport, Grand Bahama, for our Thanksgiving vacation. We spent four days seeing the sights and lying in the sun and getting to know one another better. Two girls who had transferred joined us there. It was fun to see them with us once again.

Our Founders' Day was highlighted by the presentation of a fifty-year pansy pin to Mrs. Betty Graham.

There were many other ways that we were brought closer this year, but these two activities stand out in our minds.—ANN GIBBONS.

TENNESSEE—It's nice to travel from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to the University of Kentucky and find a Theta house with smiling Thetas welcoming you. We descended upon Gamma Iota chapter at Lexington last fall for two reasons. We wanted to get away from school while becoming closer to our new pledges. Also, we wanted our pledges to realize that being a Theta meant more than having friends in one chapter and one alumnæ club. Our trip was a complete success! Our chapter became closer and the pledges were impressed with the scope of being a member of Theta.—CATHY BUTTON.

VANDERBILT—One of our aims on our campus this year has been to foster an atmosphere of togetherness. Because only officers live in the sorority house, the house can lose its position as a focal point of the sorority. This year we have introduced a series of Thursday night programs which have encouraged members to come to the house more often. Each week one girl is in charge of planning some activity for the chapter. Everything from bingo to classes in yoga has proved successful. This opportunity has also encouraged members to develop their special interests for meaningful presentations to the chapter.—VICKI VENN.

Collegiates and Campus

NORTHWESTERN—Sorority life is sparked by an enriched intellectual atmosphere this year, thanks to a new Faculty Associate program. Eleven of 15 campus chapters are participating in the NU program, which enables faculty members to join in the activities of a Greek house. At Theta, our three associates—Dr. Roland Young, political science, Dr. Charlotte Lee, dramatic interpretation, and Dr. Rodger Dalston, speech pathology—join us for dinner and social events. Last fall, they accompanied us to dinner at a Chinese restaurant in downtown Chicago. In January, they attended the Joffrey Ballet with us. The Faculty Associate experience has added a stimulating new dimension to Greek life!—SALLY BARTHOLOMEW, ANNE HILKER.

(See picture, back cover)

OREGON STATE—After receiving the Forward Award at the Grand Convention in June 1972, our chapter donated this grant to the Oregon State Scholarship fund. The sum of $325 was presented to OSU President Robert MacVicar by our chapter president, Wendy Rathbun, at a special dinner January 18, 1973. We stressed the fact that we hoped this donation would be given in the name of Beta Epsilon chapter to a deserving OSU student. President MacVicar received the grant by saying, "I only hope that your chapter will continue to go forward and help to better the education of our future students."—DEBRA LYNN CARLSON.

UTAH—The Public Awareness Council of the Associated Students of the University of Utah began a program last fall designed to acquaint the downtown community with the University. Students (including several members of Delta Lambda) volunteered to visit businessmen and other interested persons around campus. They answered questions about student life and activities and generally let the people know the University isn't made up of radicals intent on destroying society. Not only was the tour informative for the community people, it also gave students a chance to know what the downtowners have on their minds. It isn't impossible to bridge the "generation gap."—SUSAN MITCHELL.

Panhellenic Cooperation

CALIF.-Los Angeles—After attending the all California Convention in Santa Barbara last quarter our Panhellenic immediately started to effectively unify both the large and small houses in an effort to strengthen the entire Greek system here. So far this has been tremendously successful and cooperation is gradually replacing some of the competition that has existed before. In the offing for this quarter are: Open House Day coinciding with campus open house; an evening to invite the "Dormies" over for dinner; an All Greek Formal, which was planned in conjunction with IFC; an all row High School Night; and an After-Pledge-Day picnic in the spring.—ALAS! AUTHOR UNKNOWN.

Alabama Thetas and guests sing carols on day of Hilaritos, local Xmas song festival for the underprivileged.

EASTERN KENTUCKY—The semester is already looking brighter as our Panhellenic Council is working hard to make sorority ties closer. The council has alleviated the competition barrier by the discontinuance of fraternity spirit weeks, as well as launching a program that included all novice sorority gals. Upon acceptance of the bids, the new pledges took part in an all Greek initiation service held at the Meditation Chapel on campus.

We at Eastern think, control, believe and hold a common bond as one—we are not only sisters to our own sorority but we are Greek sisters—all as one.—JAN WHALLEN.

KANSAS—For the second year at K.U., rush was held during the week before second semester classes began. An increase in interest in the Greek system, fostered by IFC and Panhellenic cooperation, was indicated by the increased number of girls going through rush this year. We pledged 23 wonderful girls who will move into the chapter house this fall. An intensified "Big Sister" program is giving the pledges a true feeling for Theta during this spring semester.—MARY JANE SCHISM.

MASSACHUSETTS—Greeks cooperated wholeheartedly preparing three days of LOGIC—Leadership Opportunity for Greek Interaction and Coordination—a convention of Greeks, college administrators, national officers of fraternities and sororities from New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Washington D.C.

The University of Massachusetts Greek Council, the central organ of the University's fraternities and sororities and host of the April 6-8, 1973 leadership opportunity, planned interaction workshops on 25 topics. These centered around relevant issues to Greeks and today's society: rush on different types of campuses, Panhellenics, IFC's, coed fraternities, Greek Weeks, racism and sexism.—JOYCE KACOYANIS.

McGILL—Women's fraternities here are involved in an uphill struggle for survival. Until this year Panhellenic existed on our campus in name only. Then in September 1972 alumnae organized a Panhellenic Workshop to which all Greek women were invited. The consequences of this were tremendous. We all worked closely to formulate definitive plans for rush. This set a precedent for more social interaction including exchange dinners and a Panhellenic formal. We even established strong Panhellenic intramural teams, once again acting with one another, not against one another. McGill Panhellenic has finally realized that the strength of the individual fraternities lies in the strength of the Greek system—and they've done something about it!—CAROL CONNOLLY.

MICHIGAN—Recent troubles for the Greek system at the University of Michigan prompted the Panhellenic Council to reevaluate its position on campus. As a result, the Panhellenic decided to reorganize in order to make the council a more viable force in University life. The major changes include the creation of the office of executive secretary to Panhellenic and a revised constitution and new bylaws. The structure of rush was also greatly altered much to the delight of all the Eta Thetas. The Thetas and all the sororities on campus are filled with a new respect for the Panhellenic Council. The success of the "new" Panhellenic has proved that liberalization was not the solution to the Greek dilemma.—JEAN COLNON.

NEWCOMB-TULANE—The good news around Newcomb-Tulane is "delicious" Panhellenic relations. Our nine sororities savored a "Progressive Dinner" this fall. We had a wonderful time visiting . . . and being very well fed!

The dinner began with salad and wine at the Phi Mu house, followed by Jambalaya (a south-Louisiana delicacy made with sausage and rice) at the Kappa house, and beautiful pastries at the Theta house. All sororities took part, hostessing, cooking or doing K.P. Walking from course to course allowed us to chat with "long-lost friends" and work off a few calories at the same time!—CLAIRE WAGGENSPACK.

SOUTH DAKOTA—Alpha Rho's first second semester rush in four years resulted in the filling of our quota of six. Two more girls accepted open rush bids, bringing the 1972-73 pledge class membership to 31. This brought improved cooperation among USD sororities, as they all participated in second semester rush. The girls going through rush were benefited by exposure to all the houses. Pledges, along with actives, will now work in the traditional University springtime highlights—Strollers and Swingout.—CATHY HANSON.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—The results of our hard work during rush have always been most gratifying; however this year we took our efforts and re-channelled them. This year Panhellenic initiated a University day and a project day, as part of our rush week. Instead of our usual first day of parties, we chose an aspect of University life. Our choice was Troy Camp and we put together a slide presentation to show the rushees. For project day we had a "pot party." We painted flower pots planted with marigolds, to be sold at Marlborough Schools doll fair. The proceeds all went to the Children's Hospital. We pledged 24 beautiful girls, and greatly improved our relations with the University. We also hoped our pots would sell!—LAURIE SEVERSON.

The Greek Image

CALIF.—Berkeley—The Omega chapter's full house of 60 live-in girls is due to increased interest in sororities on the Berkeley campus. In 1972 190 girls went through fall rush opposed to 100 girls in 1971 and a low 80 in 1970. Stereotyped images, such as sororities only housing rich girls, are fading. Also, on a big, impersonal campus, girls are seeing the need for a "home" atmosphere and family concern created by the sisterhood. Omega chapter has good reason to celebrate. Thirty-one girls pledged Theta—the largest number of girls to pledge any one sorority in fall 1972.—SUZY HAGSTROM.

MISSOURI—Greek life on our campus has retained its appeal for its constituencies because of interaction. This interaction is made possible through individual fraternal efforts as well as through efforts as a whole during Greek Week. Individually, fraternities and sororities sponsor exchanges. These exchanges range from roller skating parties and dances to cookouts and formal dinners. An exchange is much like a Dutch date with all expenses and fun shared equally. As a result of these exchanges fraternity and sorority members have a chance to meet on a casual basis and get acquainted with many as opposed to the usual one-to-one basis of a formal date.—LAURA HIGGINS.

It Is Better To Give

AUBURN—Our chapter participated in the annual All Campus Fund Drive sponsored by the Student Government Association. Our "KAT O'Brien" Show has been the leading attraction for the drive since it first started. We have been very successful in that we collect the most money every year. Proceeds from the drive are distributed to various community service organizations such as the Auburn United Fund, Alabama Heart Association and many others. Some organizations such as the Student Emergency Loan Office are entirely dependent upon the funds they receive from this drive.—BETH ANDERSON.

BALL STATE—This year the Delta Sigma chapter decided to expand our local philanthropic program. On January 18, 37 sisters went to the Marion (IN) Veteran's Hospital. The Red Cross provided us with bus transportation.

We visited the ward of Vietnam veterans. They had a band and the sisters taught them to dance "the football." During the band's break, we entertained them with a medley of Theta songs. Our visit lasted two hours.

We went feeling we were giving of ourselves and came home feeling we had gained more than we had given.—JENNY VINSON.

BUTLER—With smiling faces and singing voices, Gamma Thetas, along with Indianapolis Theta alumnae, once again gave Gateway House a Christmas party. Gateway is a half-way house for former women mental patients, helping them to find jobs and adjust to a normal routine. Thetas joined with the women in trimming a tree and decorating the house, then served cookies and punch. In between songs, the women opened their presents. The evening was highlighted by the announcement of the approaching marriage of one of their girls.—PERRI CARRINGTON.

FLORIDA—The good old days are back again. Nostalgia was the theme for the rocking and rolling dance marathon staged on the Florida campus by Panhellenic in its effort to support the Kidney Foundation. The money collected through the dancers' registration fees and admission for spectators went towards the purchase of a kidney machine for the Shands Teaching Hospital in Gainesville. Thirty-eight participating couples included a Theta and her date.

After 17 hours, the winners were announced. Collections totaled nearly $1,200, proving it was worth everyone's hard day's night.—PATRICE MICK.

MARYLAND—Gamma Mu chapter and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, jointly with the Maryland State Police, gave a Christmas party for mentally retarded children from the D.C. Children's Center, Laurel (MD). Theta has participated in the party for the past three years; this year several other sororities and fraternities joined in the activities. As TV cameras focused on Governor Mandel and other state dignitaries, we sang Christmas carols. The star, of course, was Santa Claus (a state trooper) who arrived on Fraternity Row in a helicopter. Santa then gave out toys to the children which were donations collected by the Maryland State Police.—BETH BENDER.

MINNESOTA—On February 15, 1973 about 15 sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta made their acting debut. Their audience consisted of the sick children at the University of Minnesota Hospital complex. The Thetas presented a shadow show based on three children's stories—"The Princess on the Pea," "Toads and Diamonds" and "Casey at the Bat." The girls, standing in front of a bright light, projected their images onto a sheet hanging at the front of the stage. Records told the story and supplied the music, while the girls acted out the parts. The Thetas enjoyed "hamming it up" as much as the children enjoyed watching.—RENNAE SLETTEN.

MONTANA—Alpha Nu Thetas have found an exciting project in the sponsorship of an Indonesian child. Our child is a 13-year-old girl who corresponds regularly with chapter members who write her at least once a month. Working through the Christian Children's Fund, the Fraternity Trends chairman sets up the program and collects a dollar from each active per quarter for financing. All of us have found the project extremely rewarding, since even a small thing from us makes a big difference to a needy child across the world.—ELLEN MILLER.

OHIO STATE—Sororities at OSU were given a needed shot-in-the-arm when the new autumn rush was a huge success, yielding more than twice the number of pledgings over the previous year. For its first party Alpha Gamma gave a Hawaiian luau. Guests were entertained by several actives who told a story of Theta sisterhood in an authentic hula, choreographed by Lynn Duncan, whose family lives in Honolulu. Everyone at the party participated in the making of paper flowers, which were later donated to a local center for retarded children.—MEREDITH CHARLES.

PURDUE—"Charity begins at home," but with Theta it extends around the world—some in Lafayette, some overseas.

This fall Alpha Chi specialized in neighbor relations with a leaf rake and child development with a pumpkin carve. Spring brought an opportunity to help the children's hospital with a car wash and an everybody's-birthday-party. Easter produced a food basket and a new wardrobe for two needy families. The sisters spent a warm afternoon in the park—picking up litter.

Alpha Chi collected for African missions and continued to support their foster daughter in Vietnam.—MARY WOLFE.

SYRACUSE—Involvement is the key word for Syracuse Thetas—within the community and the chapter itself. Chi chapter sponsors a Brownie troop for underprivileged girls at an elementary school. The Brownies look forward to the weekly meetings where Thetas teach arts and crafts, sewing, good citizenship.

Also, Syracuse alumnae from the past ten years were invited to a dinner to honor our Mrs. Elizabeth B. Pert, chosen 1972 Housemother of the Year. A strongly united Chi chapter—past and present—gave her a trip to Europe to show deep appreciation and love.—DENISE CARR.

WASHBURN—Through cheery smiles and lively conversation Thetas of the Alpha Upsilon chapter have found that the adage "In giving, there is receiving" is still very applicable! Organized through the local Panhellenic, volunteers from the chapter, together with girls from the other sororities on campus, are visiting different nursing homes for several hours on Sundays. By involving the sororities in a highly beneficial activity and applying some of the enthusiasm of college youth to a need of the community, the local Panhellenic has been a positive force at Washburn.—RENEE MCGEE.

Alumna-Collegiate Caring and Sharing

◆ Membership in Kappa Alpha Theta does not stop with graduation from college. Active Theta alumnae extend their fraternity interest in many diverse ways. One rewarding activity is caring and sharing with the collegiates. Several alumnae chapters fund scholarships to honor outstanding college chapter members. The following is a list of these alumnae chapters and their scholarship recipients:

Bloomington, IN—$400 to Patricia Horst, Beta, Indiana.

Boulder, CO—$125 to Beta Iota, Colorado member.

Cincinnati, OH—$350 to Debbie Graham, Pam Hurley, Alpha Tau, Cincinnati.

Omaha, NE—$300 to Rho, Nebraska member.

Philadelphia, PA—$500 to Patricia Hughes, Beta Omega, Colorado College.

Portland, OR—$250 to Chris Dauchet, Beta Epsilon, Oregon State; Mary Martin, Alpha Xi, Oregon.

Syracuse, NY—$300 to Chi, Syracuse member.

Many alumnae chapters and clubs have an "Educational Fund" to aid collegiates in their areas who have encountered temporary financial difficulties. The alumnae groups participating in this are:

Chapters

Appleton, WI	Houston, TX
Austin, TX	Indianapolis, IN
Dallas, TX	Rockford, IL
Des Moines, IA	San Diego, CA
Hartford, CT	St. Louis, MO
	Seattle, WA

Clubs

El Camino Real, CA	Midland, TX
Greeley, CO	Whittier, CA

Theta membership is truly a lifelong experience. The alumnae feel that the financial support of our outstanding collegiates insures the continuing strength of our fraternity.

Alumna-Collegiate Caring and Sharing make Theta's ideals come alive.

For These Thetas Happiness Is . . .

Happiness is getting your man back after being a POW in Vietnam. Released this winter were Air Force Captain John H. Nasmyth, Jr., son of Virginia Parr Nasmyth, Washington State (imprisoned since Sept. 1966), and Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Kenneth W. North, husband of Carol Oglee North, Connecticut (imprisoned since Aug. 1966). The Nasmyths live in South San Gabriel, CA, and had traveled to the Paris Peace Talks on their son's behalf. The Norths live in Wellfleet, MA with their four daughters.

Happiness is getting your 75-year pin from Theta. Honored in February 1973 was the 115th initiate of Kappa chapter at Kansas—Louise Fanger Hanson, now of San Francisco, CA; also Ida Belle Hopkins Chamberlin, 96th initiate of Chi chapter at Syracuse, who still resides in Syracuse, NY.

Westward Ho Via Theta Houses

It all began in February 1972 when we two Thetas from George Washington University decided to drive to California—Ronnie Stone to get herself home, Linda Yolofsky going along for the ride. So, in May last year we pulled away from our dorm in Washington, D.C., armed with our AAA triptik and assorted maps.

Our plan was to stop each night in a Theta house. We made stops at Alpha Omega, University of Pittsburgh; Alpha, DePauw University; Delta, University of Illinois; Kappa, University of Kansas; Beta Gamma, Colorado State University; Delta Lambda, University of Utah. All of these Theta chapters opened their doors and hearts to us and made us know what Theta Love nation-wide is. We really met a lot of terrific people to whom we owe thanks.

In addition, our adventures were many—getting lost often in Ohio, stopping at odd spots to take pictures (even of traffic signs!), getting mixed up in a funeral procession in West Virginia!—RONNIE STONE, LINDA YOLOFSKY.

Because Of Those Several Becausees

Because of a number of "becausees" Kappa Alpha Theta now possesses what President Marty White (shown above placing the old pin in Central Office Archives) describes as "the most beautiful badge I have ever seen."

Because Anna Wolff Miller, now of Milton, MA, a 70-year Theta from Alpha Beta chapter, Swarthmore, which disbanded in 1934, began to receive the THETA MAGAZINE again and. . .

Because as Anna reported, "the story (the magazine) tells of KAΘ's growth and organization leaves me speechless," and the magazine also "answered my question of what to do with my Theta pin," and. . .

Because she thereupon wrote Theta's then President Jorgensen asking, "May I return my pin to you?" and. . .

Because President Jorgensen forwarded the letter to our now President White. . . The badge arrived at the Theta Archives.

Whereupon President Marty and Anna Wolff Miller struck up a friendship by mail and Anna was sent the 50-year pansy pin award (replacing the 50-year certificate she received earlier) and which fortuitously arrived on her 88th birthday. Meanwhile, Anna's Theta pin, set with alternate diamonds and emeralds, will always be recognized as her precious gift to the fraternity through engraving on the back giving her initiation date, May 7, 1902.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE OF RUSH RECOMMENDATION DIRECTORY

IN GENERAL: Rush registration lists are often issued late, if at all, and therefore interested girls may not be known to college chapters. Alumnae help is urgently needed in order for our chapters to maintain their high caliber of membership.

CONTENTS OF RUSH DIRECTORY:

- Rush Recommendation Boards listed by state with the Theta State Chairman given for each state.
- College chapter Rush Chairmen and Rush Advisers.

ALUMNÆ:

- Write recommendations on authorized white rush forms (or on printed form, p. 9, with letter attached).
- Send to Rush Recommendation Board serving the area in which the rushee lives.
- Send in time for processing by Rush Board so the college chapter will receive them before rush.
- If there is no Rush Board in that area, send completed form to the college chapter Rush Chairman.
- Your voluntary recommendations are the most valuable and are most useful if received in advance of rush.
- All recommendations should be submitted to college chapters as soon as possible:

no later than August 1 for chapters with fall rush
no later than Sept. 15 for chapters with deferred rush

COLLEGE CHAPTERS:

- Green sheets from Rush Boards must be accompanied by a completed white rush form.
- Recommendations from Authorized Rush Representatives are on the white forms and do not require green sheets, as the pink slip which may be attached indicates.
- All white rush forms from alumnae for girls who do not live in a Rush Board area are legal, with Rush Adviser's approval.
- Please remember to acknowledge the receipt of recommendations.
- If you must solicit a recommendation for a rushee:
 - Direct the request to the person listed for her town or area in the Rush Directory or in the list of Authorized Rush Representatives the chapter has received from Central Office.
 - If there is no one listed, request names of alumnae in the area from the State or Province Chrm.
 - If you receive no reply from alumnae in a reasonable length of time, contact the Alumnae District President through your Rush Adviser.

COMPLETE COOPERATION among individual alumnae, Rush Boards and college chapters is essential to guarantee the smooth operation of our recommendation procedures. It is the privilege of alumnae to sponsor qualified rushees; it is the privilege of college chapters to select from those recommended to them.

New Directions for the Foundation

February Findings

After its yearly meeting this February the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation Board of Trustees took several exciting steps to broaden the scope of Foundation activities and define some fund-raising priorities. In line with Board President JoAnn Thompson's goal "to simplify and strengthen the Foundation," the Board reorganized itself into four major committees. Some of the responsibilities assigned to these committees include the following:

1. Administrative. Chaired by secretary Frances Landrum Holman, this committee will handle all office and accounting matters, working directly with the new Foundation Office Director, Dee Vaaler.

2. Finance. This committee, under the direction of Treasurer Opal Marshall McCelvey, will formulate the budget and supervise investments.

3. Development. Chaired by Barbara Graham Wells, this committee will operate in the areas of planning, fund-raising and public relations. The LINK liaisons will work in this area (see article on next page).

4. Projects. Under the chairmanship of Nancy Dodge Koch, this committee will handle current project coordination and evaluation as well as institute a search for new projects in the area of handicapped children, education or the environment. A group of Projects Advisors will be appointed to work in this area to identify projects that can be implemented at both a national and local level using volunteer time as well as money.

In discussing fund-raising directions, the trustees decided to consider a large, national fund-raising drive. Memorials and bequests will be given higher priority as prime sources of funds.

Foundation Board, concerned about money, looks over shoulder of Treasurer Opal McCelvey (holding papers). Standing, l. to r., Foun. Office Director Dorothy Vaaler; Grand President Marty White; Development Chrm. Barbara Wells; GVP Alumnae Marie Fitz; Projects Chrm. Nancy Koch. Seated, Foun. VP Barbara Harder, McCelvey, President JoAnn Thompson, Secretary Frances Holman. Exciting plans for the Foundation emerged at February 1973 Board meeting.

Foundation Executive Committee digs in on paper work. L. to r., President JoAnn Thompson, who really looks "all piled up"; Vice-President Barb Harder, looking pensive but determined; Secretary Frances Holman, who is starting right in to get some work out of the way.

Meet the LINK Liaisons . . .

Foundation Development Chairman Barbara Wells has announced the establishment of a LINK Liaison Committee to provide closer contact between the Foundation Board of Trustees and Thetas. One alumna and one collegiate have been appointed from each of nine regions.
